

Presentation Method (D)

2 units (selection)

Graduate School of Advanced Technology and Science

Target) Poster and oral presentations, and journal publications are common means of appealing the research work in various scientific and technological disciplines. It's undoubtedly important for activating the research work. The lecture is intending for students to learn most efficient way to appeal their findings and discussions in scientific community.

Outline) Credits are acknowledged to the students who are supervised to give conference speech by themselves and do actually the lectures.

Goal) The lecture is aiming at having knowledge and experience of the presentaion in international conferences.

Evaluation Criteria) Students' achievement is evaluated by portfolios submitted showing the progress in preparation of international conferences as well as by presentation records.

Contents) <http://cms.db.tokushima-u.ac.jp/cgi-bin/toURL?EID=216873>

Student) Able to be taken by only specified class(es)

Note) A possible student should submit portfolios which are evidenced for his/her 90 hours' extensive work. Students are advised to ask details about this lecture to their supervisors.