Target) The primary aim of this course is to improve the student's ability to communicate in English in a variety of formal and informal situations.

Outline) There will be lectures, video presentations, and reading and writing exercises, but the main focus will be on speaking and listening exercises. Class presentations will be an important component, and students will be expected to speak in class and to prepare written summaries of oral presentations given by other students.

Keyword) Communicative English

Goal) Students who complete this course will have experience using English to describe orally and in writing experiences and opinions of themselves and others. Oral presentation exercises should make students more comfortable in public speaking. In addition, students should have increased confidence in their foreign language ability because they have followed a course given by a foreign instructor entirely in English.
