【授業の目的】 This English course is more about using the knowledge of English in conversation and written form. In this way, students will be ever ready for service in a global community. Japanese students will be prepared to face a global field without hesitation or insecurity. This course focuses on conversational English, maximizing speaking time spent in the classroom.

【授業の概要】 Students will create their own conversations about topics familiar to them. Classes will include whole, small group and pair activities. Students will be required to take risks and assess their own progress as the course develops. Students who take risks will do well in this class.

【到達目標】 Students who complete this course should feel more confident when speaking or writing in English.
